

VIGOROUS ADVOCATES AND IMPRESSIVE RESULTS

Although the courts were closed and trials were delayed during the pandemic, the legal team of McMurray Henriks, LLP never halted its quest for justice for its clients. Seven-figure and eight-figure settlements are routine for this boutique law practice, which is led by the husband-and-wife team of Randy McMurray and Yana Henriks.

They secured a $22 million settlement in a wrongful death case. They also settled a case for $4.65 million on behalf of a client who was shot in the head by a police officer. They achieved an $850,000 settlement on behalf of a client who was placed in a brief chokehold that police are now prohibited from using.

Henriks is a fierce advocate in cases involving civil rights, wrongful death and medical malpractice. Named to the Rising Stars lists from 2015 through 2017 and a Super Lawyers honoree since 2021, she also fights civil rights cases in appellate court, securing opinions that further protect her clients' right to a fair trial.

McMurray, who specializes in catastrophic personal injury cases and civil rights matters, has been named to the Super Lawyers list for 14 years. He is a former partner of renowned lawyer Johnnie Cochran and was also the first Black president of the Consumer Attorneys Association of Los Angeles.

Henriks and McMurray are honored to advocate for those who most need their help and expertise.
